Other Helpful Information:

El Camino College is located Torrance, progressive city with a population of 133 on the beautiful Pacific coast of Southern California. Its located between Los Angeles and Orange County. With average temperatures ranging from 10°C to 30°C, Torrance also serves as an important tourist destination, offering year-round cultural and recreational activities and inviting sandy beaches along the shoreline.

El Camino College, founded in 1947, offers over ninety associate degree or certificate programs. Many of El Camino 30,000 students take advantage of transfer agreements to complete bachelor's degrees at some of the finest colleges and universities in the United States. Local universities that welcome El Camino students include UCLA, UC Berkeley, USC, Cal State and many others.

Students at El Camino College are a reflection of the rich diversity of the southern California area. More than forty student-run clubs, including an International Student Club, provide a variety of social and service opportunities. The College has championship teams in men's and women's competitive sports such as football, basketball, tennis, golf, as well as a beach volleyball, swimming, badminton, martial arts, and many other.

The International Student Program staff is eager to assist students throughout their stay at El Camino College. For students who are not able to achieve a satisfactory English proficiency test score or who want to improve their English language skills, the El Camino Language Academy prepares the ESL student to take and pass TOEFL and transfer to the academic program at El Camino. The program is semester long and is offered three times a year. ECC provides students with a variety of housing options; students may choose from an apartment locator service or homestay.
