Other Helpful Information:

The international student population at the University of La Verne is a vibrant and growing community of more than 650 students from multiple countries. The University of La Verne maintains a commitment to diversity and inclusivity. We welcome the opportunity to invite you to our campus in Southern California!

We value diversity so much that we have a dedicated center - Center for Multicultural Services (CMS) at the University of La Verne which creates and supports programs, services, and resources, dedicated to fostering an environment of exploration and consciousness raising and empowerment, as well as collaboration and celebration of the diverse cultural community present. CMS works to create an inclusive and justice oriented learning community by emphasizing and exploring socio-cultural identity and systems of oppression spanning the individual, community, and institutional levels.
