Other Helpful Information:

Doane is a small, private, liberal arts institution located in a safe community in the midwest region of the United States. The midwest is known for its nice people and affordable cost of living. At Doane, students will have 1:1 interactions with career services, advisors, and academic success coaches. Class sizes are small, so your instructor will know you by name and will not be taught by a professor, not a graduate student. Our application for admission is free and requires three things: 1) Online application, 2) Transcripts, and 3) proof of English Proficiency.
