

Welcoming. Active. Driven. Engaged. We are a public comprehensive university in the Midwestern region of the United States, located along the Mississippi River in southern Wisconsin. We are known regionally and nationally for our strong science and health programs, AACSB accredited business programs, and liberal arts focus. We are committed to social justice and inclusion, and we inspire our students to be leaders and advocates. We offer over 100 majors in both popular and unique fields, and we encourage curiosity and engagement through undergraduate collaborative research, education abroad, and involvement in our community. Students receive a high-quality education at an affordable rate, and we support their studies through a variety of scholarship opportunities. Friendship families and global buddies connect students with others to form lifelong connections and make impactful memories. UWL is a special place that cares deeply about its students and their growth and development while pursuing their degree.
