Bard College at Simon's Rock is the only four-year residential college of the liberal arts and sciences exclusively for students ready to enter college after the 10th or 11th grade. We're part of the prestigious Bard network, and we boast an impressive academic rating of 92 (99 is highest) from the Princeton Review.

Students complete an Associate degree in Liberal Arts on the way to a Bachelor's degree in one of 35 different concentrations. Eighty percent of our students go on to graduate school. We have partnerships with Columbia and Dartmouth in engineering, SUNY Upstate Medical School's PhD and MD programs, and Oxford for study abroad.
Our students are curious, bright, mature, independent. They want to be challenged, they want to dig deep, and they want to ask big questions. They want to be treated seriously as learners and want to be with other students who are eager to learn.

El Camino College is located Torrance, progressive city with a population of 133 on the beautiful Pacific coast of Southern California. Its located between Los Angeles and Orange County. With average temperatures ranging from 10°C to 30°C, Torrance also serves as an important tourist destination, offering year-round cultural and recreational activities and inviting sandy beaches along the shoreline.

El Camino College, founded in 1947, offers over ninety associate degree or certificate programs. Many of El Camino 30,000 students take advantage of transfer agreements to complete bachelor's degrees at some of the finest colleges and universities in the United States. Local universities that welcome El Camino students include UCLA, UC Berkeley, USC, Cal State and many others.

Students at El Camino College are a reflection of the rich diversity of the southern California area. More than forty student-run clubs, including an International Student Club, provide a variety of social and service opportunities. The College has championship teams in men's and women's competitive sports such as football, basketball, tennis, gulf, as well as a beach volleyball, swimming, badminton, martial arts, and many other.

The International Student Program staff is eager to assist students throughout their stay at El Camino College. For students who are not able to achieve a satisfactory English proficiency test score or who want to improve their English language skills, the El Camino Language Academy prepares the ESL student to take and pass TOEFL and transfer to the academic program at El Camino. The program is semester long and is offered three times a year. ECC provides students with a variety of housing options; students may choose from an apartment locator service or homestay.

Scholarship Information:

All new first-year undergraduate international students who submit completed applications and meet the requirements for full admission for fall semester are automatically considered for the International Education Scholarship and University Merit Scholarship. Separate applications are required for the Presidential Fellows Program (PFP) and the #YouAreWelcomeHere Scholarship. Miami University scholarships are highly competitive. The academic qualifications determining scholarship awards are dependent on the strength of the applicant pool. Seventy-nine percent of first-year international applicants accepted for Fall 2021 were offered an academic scholarship.

International transfer students will also be considered for the transfer scholarship opportunities at the time of admission.
